Experience 'Flags of the Forest' – An Immersive Art Exhibition Celebrating Nature's Resilience

Friday March 21

Step into a world of reflection and reinvention with Flags of the Forest, a stunning indoor installation by acclaimed artist Fiona Campbell from April 8-13th at the Seed Creative Popup at Angel Place Bridgwater. The work explores the beauty and resilience of nature. Reclaimed and botanically-dyed fabrics are combined with wood, metal, and other found materials. This multi-layered artwork was originally created by Fiona at Tremenheere Sculpture Gardens, Cornwall. These eco-flags, rich with texture and meaning, celebrate the biodiversity of woodlands and the hope for a thriving natural world. Visitors can walk among these soft hangings and hard lines, experiencing the interplay of art, sustainability, and sound through a soundscape by Ushara Dilrukshan, adding another layer to this immersive sculptural installation.

Alongside the artworks, Fiona will be running a free drop-in Workshop on Saturday 12th April, 11am-2pm at the Seed Creative Popup at Angel Place. Free, fun, and open to everyone aged 6+ (children accompanied by an adult). Get hands-on with recycled materials as you transform them into imaginative artworks. Be inspired by the installations on display and enjoy a relaxed, creative space where you can let your imagination run wild. No need to book - just drop in and join the fun!

Seed producer Laura Hylton said:

"We're thrilled to bring Fiona Campbell's thought-provoking installations to Bridgwater. Flags of the Forest showcases the incredible potential of creativity and sustainability to inspire change and spark important conversations about our environment. Together with Fiona's engaging eco workshop, this is a fantastic opportunity for the community to connect with art in a hands-on and meaningful way. We can't wait to see everyone get involved!"

Seed's aim is to enable more people in Sedgemoor to actively engage in the creative arts, particularly those who don't usually do so. The projects and events are supported by the Arts Council England via the Creative People and Places project.

We believe that arts, culture, and creativity are not elite activities but should be an ordinary part of everyday life, created by, with, and for the people. This can be achieved in partnership with artists in all forms of the creative arts, working in response to the collective imagination and reflecting the things that are important to the communities of Sedgemoor. We seek to make creative arts, culture, and heritage part of everyday life in Sedgemoor by growing new opportunities for its people to participate, create, and celebrate.

Seed is part of the Creative People and Places programme, supported using public funding by the National Lottery through Arts Council England. Thanks to National Lottery players, Creative People and Places is about more people taking the lead in choosing, creating, and taking part in creative and cultural experiences in the places where they live.

Since 2012, there have been over 15 million engagements with the CPP programme, and 90% of people who participate in CPP weren't previously engaging regularly with creativity and culture. Find out more about each project, the difference the programme has made, and our learning:
